

Introduction

As the trial and punishment of Jesus begins to unfold we see how the judge will submit himself to be judged. Jesus will be condemned, not for what he did, but for who he is and claimed to be.

Observation/Interpretation

- Read Mark 14:55-64. What are some of the charges that are made against Jesus?
- Earlier in Mark 8:35, Jesus said, “If you want to save your life, you will lose it, but if you lose your life because of me and my message you’ll save it.” Mark tell this story paralleling the actions of Jesus, who was willing to lose his life, and Peter, who was seeking to save his life. In what ways do we act like Peter?

Application

- What are some ways that, like Jesus, God may be calling you to be willing to be falsely accused and lay down your life for the benefit/blessing of others?
- How does knowing that Jesus did this for you help empower you to be willing to do the above?

Prayer

Ask God to help you to be, like Jesus, willing to die to yourself in order to live to be a blessing to others. In living like this you will find your favorite joy.

Community Group Discussion

- Read the passage together out loud.
- Involve your group by asking/answering the study questions, taking the time to share.
- Ask for prayer requests and be sure to pray together.

Family Discussion

- Have your child/children read the passage aloud, if old enough otherwise you read it aloud.
- Involve them by asking questions.
- Ask for prayer requests and invite them to pray together as a family.

A great way to use of these notes is to start/join a Community Group

These notes can be used for personal bible study, yet, another way would be to invite some people together. We call these intentional gatherings, 'Community Groups'.

What is a Community Group?

Community Groups are small gatherings of believers (non-believers welcomed too!) that meet regularly for accountability, friendship, study of the Bible and prayer. Community Groups are an essential part of the mission of Calvary SLO Church as they are a place where we wrestle with the truths of the Bible and encourage one another toward the life God intends. Each community group is unique and molded by the people who attend it. Most community groups gather weekly and involve food, dialog, prayer, discussion for applying the Bible to practical living, and loving service to one-another. They're meant to be an organic and authentic expression of the church, actively living like the body of Jesus.

Why should I join/start a Community Group?

God is a Trinitarian God who is revealed as one in three persons: Father, Son and Spirit. We've been made to image God, which means we're designed for community & friendship. We often suffer when we're not in community, due to the brokenness of life, complexity of this world and the temptation to isolate ourselves. We encourage you to gather with a small group of friends, family or roommates on a weekly basis and use these discussion notes to press deeper into God.

How do I join the Calvary SLO Community Group eco-system?

We're enthusiastic about all forms of biblical community, however there are definite benefits to joining with the Calvary SLO Community Group (CG) eco-system. In short, the benefits are:

- Training: We have trainings intent on equipping leaders.
- Support: Each CG leader is assigned a coach to provide assistance and ongoing support.
- Visibility: CG's are promoted via the bulletin, website & given access to The City (our online social network).

To join all you have to do is sign up for the next upcoming training! Info: pastor James: james@calvaryslo.com.
